Your library participates in the ATLA Reciprocal Borrowing Program. Participating libraries agree to grant check-out privileges to each other’s patrons.

It’s easy to use...

Find: A participating library at http://tinyurl.com/ATLA-RB-Map

Show: Proof of current enrollment as required by the participating library

Check-Out: Lending periods are determined by each participating library

Remember! You are responsible for adhering to local library policy and returning the materials in a timely fashion.

Ask your librarian for more details

Find: A participating library at http://tinyurl.com/ATLA-RB-Map

Show: Proof of current enrollment as required by the participating library

Check-Out: Lending periods are determined by each participating library

Remember! You are responsible for adhering to local library policy and returning the materials in a timely fashion.

Ask your librarian for more details

Find: A participating library at http://tinyurl.com/ATLA-RB-Map

Show: Proof of current enrollment as required by the participating library

Check-Out: Lending periods are determined by each participating library

Remember! You are responsible for adhering to local library policy and returning the materials in a timely fashion.

Ask your librarian for more details

Find: A participating library at http://tinyurl.com/ATLA-RB-Map

Show: Proof of current enrollment as required by the participating library

Check-Out: Lending periods are determined by each participating library

Remember! You are responsible for adhering to local library policy and returning the materials in a timely fashion.

Ask your librarian for more details

Find: A participating library at http://tinyurl.com/ATLA-RB-Map

Show: Proof of current enrollment as required by the participating library

Check-Out: Lending periods are determined by each participating library

Remember! You are responsible for adhering to local library policy and returning the materials in a timely fashion.

Ask your librarian for more details