ATLA is just a tremendous benefit. It is an opportunity to be able to learn from each other, to network with each other, and the annual conference gives us an opportunity to touch base and find out what other libraries are doing.... There is always a resource, always someone to help with support. We challenge each other and help each other grow.

ATLA has long been the center of my service to the profession and indispensable for my advancement in the profession. Success and advancement in my own workplace has been made possible by the numerous opportunities to write, speak, serve, lead, and learn from my colleagues at ATLA.
