

Become a Content Partner

Atla
Religion
Database

Atlas

Atlas
PLUS

atla.com

Atla is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting worldwide scholarly communication in religion and theology. Atla is actively seeking content partners to join a growing list of global publishers in our prestigious product line of electronic research tools: Atla Religion Database® (Atla RDB®), AtlaSerials® (Atlas®), and AtlaSerials PLUS® (Atlas PLUS®). A few of the reasons publishers choose to work with Atla are:

International Exposure and Dissemination

Indexing of a journal in Atla Religion Database increases discovery of the valuable content within these publications. Broad dissemination of the full-text content is offered to a global audience of academic libraries in more than 65 countries via Atlas and Atlas PLUS.

Custom Licensing Arrangements

Atla offers custom licensing terms for full-text content that respect your other distribution channels and intellectual property rights.

Highest Standards in Academic Treatment and Presentation

Atla employs an in-house team of religion and theology scholars with extensive language capabilities who expertly navigate and index scholarly materials.

Financial Benefits

Atla absorbs the costs of indexing and digitizing your content. Many full-text licensing arrangements include financial incentives for participation.

We welcome submissions of your scholarly publications in religion and theology for inclusion in our index and full-text research tools. Once submitted, your journal will be reviewed by our expert team of religion and theology scholars.

To learn more about how Atla can support your content, refer to our website or contact connect@atla.com.

atla
Collectors & Connectors
in Religion & Theology