

Atla Annual Proposal Template

We invite you to use this template of the Atla Annual 2022 proposal form to help you as you develop your submission. After reviewing the questions below, we invite you to submit your proposal.

Session Information

Given the increased attendance at Atla Annual 2021 Online as well as ongoing public health concerns related to the pandemic, the Conference Committee is planning a hybrid experience for 2022 with both in-person and online sessions.

More information about session types and the proposal process can be found on the Atla website.

1. We welcome proposals for sessions with presenters who plan to join us in person in Baltimore, Maryland, as well as presenters who prefer to participate online from wherever they are. How do you prefer to present this session?
 - a. In-person to an in-person audience only
 - b. In-person to an in-person and online audience
 - c. Online to an in-person and online audience
 - d. Online to online audience only

2. If you selected "in person presentation only" above and Atla Annual 2022 must transition to fully online, do you still intend to present this session?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
 - c. Not applicable

3. Which type of session are you proposing?
 - a. Business Meeting
 - b. Conversation Group (45 minutes)
 - c. Listen and Learn (45 minutes)
 - d. Panel Presentation (75 minutes)
 - e. Paper (45 minutes)
 - f. Poster
 - g. Pre-Conference Workshop - Full Day (8 hours)
 - h. Pre-Conference Workshop - Half Day (4 hours)
 - i. Pre-Conference Workshop - Quarter Day (2 hours)
 - j. Worship

4. If you selected Pre-Conference Workshop, indicate the maximum capacity for this session.

Atla Annual Proposal Template

5. If you selected Business Meeting as the session type above, indicate the type of group that will be meeting.
 - a. N/A
 - b. Denominational
 - c. Interest
 - d. Regional
 - e. Other (NACO, Reciprocal Borrowing, Atla Digital Library)

Proposal Information

Proofread and format as directed below.

What you submit is considered final and will be used for promotion online and in print.

Formatting guidelines:

- Use upper and lowercase letters in your title
 - Use only a single space after the end of each sentence
 - Spellcheck
6. Title: Be sure your title is clear and reflects the topic of your presentation.
 7. Description: A clear and informative summary of your presentation, must be under 2000 characters including spaces.
 8. Audience Takeaways: What will attendees take away from your presentation that might be helpful in their own work? Be as specific as possible.
 9. Audience Engagement: How do you plan to engage your audience?
 10. Qualifications: Why are you qualified to present on this topic?
 11. Why Atla: Why do you want to share this with the Atla Community?

Presenters

Enter the contact information for each session presenter(s) and indicate if they are acting as a moderator, if this is their first time presenting at Atla Annual, and if they will be presenting online.

The Conference Committee is planning a hybrid experience for Atla Annual 2022 with both in person and online sessions.

Atla Annual Proposal Template

12. Presenter 1

- a. Full Name
- b. Title at Institution/Organization
- c. Name of Institution/Organization
- d. Email
- e. Checkboxes
 - i. Moderator
 - ii. First time presenting at Atla Annual
 - iii. Online presenter

13. Presenter 2

- f. Full Name
- g. Title at Institution/Organization
- h. Name of Institution/Organization
- i. Email
- j. Checkboxes
 - i. Moderator
 - ii. First time presenting at Atla Annual
 - iii. Online presenter

14. Presenter 3

- k. Full Name
- l. Title at Institution/Organization
- m. Name of Institution/Organization
- n. Email
- o. Checkboxes
 - i. Moderator
 - ii. First time presenting at Atla Annual
 - iii. Online presenter

15. Presenter 4

- p. Full Name
- q. Title at Institution/Organization
- r. Name of Institution/Organization
- s. Email
- t. Checkboxes
 - i. Moderator
 - ii. First time presenting at Atla Annual
 - iii. Online presenter